

Campus Communicator

Eliminate student confusion and drive informed financial decision-making

Campus Communicator is the clarifying engagement tool for creating cost transparency and encouraging positive financial aid decision-making. This transparency reduces call and email volume while guiding students through the enrollment and financial aid process.

Personalize Messaging and Improve Student Engagement With Campus Communicator

Provide clear, concise offer letters: Improve cost transparency with offer letters that are easy-to-understand to help students realize the true value of their financial aid package

Never miss a connection: Monitor open rates, identify bounce backs, and take action to optimize your email and SMS message delivery

Keep students on track: Prioritize high-impact action items with clear calls-to-action to guide students through the financial aid process

Ready to Learn More? Contact an Ellucian Team Member Today!

GET STARTED

Charting the digital future of higher education with cloud-ready technology solutions and services, Ellucian serves more than 2,900 customers and 22 million students in over 50 countries. To find out what's next in higher education solutions and services, visit Ellucian at www.ellucian.com.